NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The demand for Liu Ping-chang's punishment, reported in another column, is the very first bit of news of any importance, or of any interest, from Peking since the massacres in Chengtu and Kucheng, and the first sign that the British Government has in any degree woken up to the necessities of the case. But it is not enough to demand Liu's punishment. The first demand should be for his instant removal from all office pending inquiry and his recall to Peking and commitment to the appropriate Board. While he remains in office no inquiry into his misdeeds can be successfully carried on. To ask for his punishment is to be content with a promise that, after due inquiry, he will be punished. Promises have ceased to be satisfactory. There must be something done. The demand should be for his instant removal from office and his return to Peking. Compliance with that demand could be enforced at once—the occupation of any seaport or riverine port, would suffice—and there would be no room for the usual Chinese tergiversation and procrastination.

The principal mandarins in Kucheng and in the prefectural city adjoining should also be peremptorily removed from office and put under arrest in Foochow pending detailed inquiry, and it should be laid down as a rule absolutely binding on the Government of China that in every case of an outbreak directed against Europeans, whether missionaries or merchants, the officials of all grades responsible for the peace and good order of the district or city or town should, without inquiry or delay, be superseded, removed to the capital, and be put on their trial, not to be restored to office until exonerated from all blame by the Minister or officers of the country whose subjects had been the objects of the outbreak. The Chinese Government has always held it as an axiom in the administration of its own government that riots, outbreaks, or rebellions in any province is sufficient prima facie proof of misgovernment to justify the removal of the officials concerned.

The Japanese appear to be making solid progress in Formosa. They are now more than half way down the length of the island. We congratulate them and hope soon to be able to report that they are in complete and peaceful possession of the whole island. The immense wealth of the island was wholly wasted in Chinese hands. One thing is clear; they have had harder fighting in Formosa than in the whole war from Assam to Wei-hai-wai combined. It will do them good—both the government, the officers and the men—and bring it home to them, and we hope to others who have inclined to look down on John Chinaman as an impossible soldier, that with a very little additional experience and with a very trifling variation in the circumstances of his position, John can be turned into an efficient fighting man. Chang-hua was not captured without a loss to the Chinese of some 600 men, and that means that the Chinese made an obstinate stand and a vigorous defence.

We have noted, not without amusement, that the Colonial Secretary, in acknowledging, on the 31st August, the letter of the Unofficial members, on the Military Contribution Question, of the 23rd August, stated for their information that the Governor did not wish them to look upon their letter as confidential. We are entitled, it seems to us, to consider this as a response to our complaint, the other day, that any correspondence between the Unofficials and the Government on such a subject should be kept secret and an admission that we were right in our view and that the Government was in the wrong. But it must not be understood as an admission by the Government that the correspondence was not originally intended to be confidential. We know that the Colonial Secretary's letter of the 2nd August to the Unofficials was marked "confidential," although that word was omitted by whoever sent the copies the other day to the papers. We remember also that at the meeting of Council on the 16th instant there was no communication from the Unofficial members laid on the table with the other despatches, although from the tenor of the Governor's concluding remarks people were led to believe that he had already received the expression of their opinions. The Council meeting was held on the 16th ult. the letter is dated the 23rd ult., and the Governor's permission to publish is dated the 31st ultimo.

We find it noted in the tablets of our memory that our friends of the China Mail took us gravely to task not so very long ago for extracting from a Straits paper, and publishing here, some very pretty verses by "Q," overlooking the fact that the verses in question had originally appeared in our contemporary's columns only a short time previously. We confessed our offence and were duly penitent. Our friends extracted from a Shanghai paper the other day, and published, Miss Coddington's narrative of her sufferings at Kucheng, entirely losing sight of the fact that we had been the first to give publicity to that narrative seven days before it appeared in any other paper in the East, and this, too, without any acknowledgement, although all the Shanghai papers (except the one from which our contemporary took the report) had given us due credit for the publication. Will our good friends admit that they as well as ourselves are liable sometimes to overights and mistakes?

THE BRITISH MINISTER'S ULTIMATUM.

SEVERE MEASURES THREATENED.

VICEROY LIU TO BE PUNISHED.

Telegraphic information just received from Peking states that Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British Minister, has notified the Taungli Yamen that Liu Ping-chang, the scheming Viceroy of Szechuen province, who is mainly responsible for the recent outrages perpetrated upon British subjects in Chengtu and other cities in Szechuen province, must be punished. If he is not punished promptly and adequately the Minister asserts that severe measures will be promptly adopted by the British Government.

The Yamen has replied to Sir Nicholas O'Connor in a conciliatory manner, pleading for leniency on the grounds of its helplessness and inability to deal effectively with the many difficulties with which it is beset.

As an instance of the varying effect of certain degrees of heat in different places, the following from an American exchange is of interest:—Chicago, August 10th.—Six persons in this city were prostrated by the heat yesterday, and one died a few minutes after being sunstruck. The mercury reached 94 deg., but the humidity made the day almost unbearable, and on the previous day the thermometer had registered 87 deg. The injured will probably all recover. In Hongkong during the past two or three days although the thermometer has been up to 84 and 85 in the shade yet we have heard neither of deaths from heat apoplexy nor sunstroke.

R. M. CAMPBELL, Esq.,
Chairman of the Shanghai Branch of the China Association.

SIR,—The orators at the meeting held on the 5th inst. at Shanghai, which was called by your Association, and over which you presided, were misinformed as to the facts of my connection with the proposed commission to investigate the causes of the recent riots in Szechuen. My participation therein consisted only in my having agreed that Rev. Spencer Lewis, whose name was furnished me by the American missionaries at Shanghai, should sit on the commission and should report to me. The commission never was organised, Mr. Trautman could not go to Chengtu and no person was named in his place. About three weeks ago, after the American missionaries had expressed themselves as favourable to a commission composed of Americans exclusively, as I understood their resolutions, I withdrew from all connection with the proposed commission, notified Sir N. O'Connor of my withdrawal, commanded the appointment of Rev. Spencer Lewis, and wired Mr. Trautman of my action.

Your obedient servant,
CHARLES DENBY.

THE BRITISH MINISTER AND THE TSUNG-LI YAMEN.

RECALLED.

We are glad to learn that Sir Nicholas O'Connor has taken a very serious view of the treacherous conduct of the Chinese officials in Fuhkien to insulting the English and American Consuls and holding them up to ridicule and contempt in the eyes of the Chinese. When the news of the deadlock reached Peking the British Minister proceeded to the yamen, and a stormy scene, bordering on violence, ensued. The Chinese officials were completely taken aback by the unexpected turn of affairs and the threatening attitude of a Minister upon whose complacency they had apparently counted. The result of the interview was the despatch of urgent telegrams to the Foochow authorities ordering them to remove the obstructions to the proceedings of the Joint Commission. It is, says the China Gazette of the 1st ultimo, now reported that the Taung-li Yamen are so terrified at the menacing attitude of Sir Nicholas O'Connor that they have wired to the Chinese Minister in London to use his influence to get the British Minister recalled.

We are very glad to be able to report that Sir Nicholas O'Connor has insisted on the prompt and adequate punishment of Liu, the Viceroy of Szechuen, of whose complicity in and connivance at the recent outrages on British missionaries in Szechuen there is now no longer room for any doubt.

SHOCKING SUICIDE.

September 6th.

CORONER'S INQUIRY.

The coroner held an inquiry to-day touching the death of a German subject named Herman Michael, whose body was found lying in Wong-nichuan Gap Road on the 3rd instant.

An Indian Constable deposed that he saw the body first, and that while he was on his way to report the matter to the Inspector at the Aberdeen Station he met Mr. J. Roberts, and the two of them then went to the spot where the deceased was found. They found a wound on the left side of the deceased and some revolver ammunition in his pockets. The matter was then reported at the Station and the body taken to the Mortuary.

J. Roberts corroborated the constable's statement, and enumerated the things found on the deceased, viz. a wallet, a small box of cartridges, some papers, a card bearing the name Herman Michael, one purse containing two cartridges, a small German coin, a purse with a small gold chain in it, a pocket German-English dictionary, and a pocket knife. Search was made about the place where the body was to see whether there was a revolver or any other weapon, but without success.

Nicholas Gauthier, who came to Hongkong with the deceased in the s.s. Oldenburg, stated that he had only formed acquaintance with the deceased on board ship, and knew him to be a steady and respectable man. The deceased told him that he was coming to Hongkong to work in a firm as clerk. The Oldenburg came into port on the 28th ultimo and the last time witness saw the deceased was on the 29th when he appeared to be in good spirits, and perfectly sane.

The proprietor of the Western Hotel stated that the deceased lived at his Hotel for three days, but left it leaving his box and promising to go back to the Hotel.
The manager of the Praya East Hotel deposed that the deceased borrowed $4 from him, saying he had lost his money but would return it the next day.
Mr. Carl Tetslaff, Secretary to the German Consulate, said he did not know the deceased. Among the papers found on the deceased there was a letter addressed to the German Consul in Hongkong stating "I cannot get employment in Hongkong, so I must go this way." His father's name was given as Robert Michael, Coburg. There were a few papers which showed that he had been in the Navy from March 1891 to September 1894. There was also a letter which was dated "Good-bye, my dear parents and brothers and sisters, do not be angry with me for taking this step; give my compliments to my intended and to Robert."

Inspector Bremner put in a letter that was received a few days ago by the French mail. The Coroner requested that the letter be opened and it was then found that it was from the deceased's family.

Dr. Marques, who held the post mortem examination, said the bullet had fractured one of the ribs and gone through the heart and a portion of the intestines, but the pellet could not be found. In his opinion death was caused by hemorrhage in the chest occasioned by a bullet wound.

The Coroner said that death resulted from hemorrhage caused by a bullet wound self-inflicted.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT.

IN BANKRUPTCY.

September 6th.

In re the Mi Cheong, the Kwang Cheong and the Hong Cheong firms, and Li Ping Chao and Wan Kum, partners in the said firms.

Ex parte the Tung Hing Cheong firm, creditors.

Mr. J. F. Reece, solicitor, appeared for the petitioners, and Mr. J. Hastings, solicitor (Mr. Director's office), was present on behalf of other creditors of the firms who had the goods of the firm in their possession under writ of foreign attachment.

Mr. Reece, in opening, stated that his clients petitioned for a receiving order against the two men, who he had evidence to prove were the only partners in the three firms named, and these men had committed acts of bankruptcy in leaving the Colony on the 15th and 16th of August 1895, respectively, to escape their creditors. The indebtedness to his clients was in the form of two promissory notes, one for $1,000, dated the 23rd July 1895, and the other for $500, of the same date, and interest. He presented affidavits stating that these two men were the only partners, and also evidence to prove that the men had left the Colony because their creditors were pressing them. After his lordship had heard this in evidence he asked for a receiving order against the firm and the two partners.

Mr. Hastings explained that he was watching the case on behalf of creditors who held the goods on an execution warrant. His clients' claim was against the Kwang Cheong firm, and he understood that the notes held by the creditors in the present suit were against the Mi Cheong firm. His clients had been put to the expense of taking steps to prevent the property being taken out of the Colony, and as they could get no costs under the Ordinance, he hoped some allowance would be made to permit his clients to get their debt.

There was then a long discussion over the form of the order, after which evidence was given of the signature of the notes, the constitution of the firms, and the departure of members of the firms sued against. During this, his lordship made some very pertinent remarks upon the utter unreliability of Chinese affidavits in cases of the sort.

A receiving order was given under bankruptcy proceedings as against the Mi Cheong firm, and the two partners Li Ping Chao and Wan Kum. Mr. Reece undertaking not to apply for execution orders, and on Friday, the 20th September, was set for a public examination of the bankrupts.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

SHANGHAI AND COAST PORT ITEMS.

The Willard Opera Company has returned to Shanghai after a successful season in Japan and is doing good business. This talented company will probably re-visit Hongkong on the 18th inst.

The French gunboat Zulu has suddenly returned from Kiangtung to Wuhu in consequence of alarming telegrams pointing to probable disturbances at sea near Wuhu.

Seeing, says the China Gazette, how kind the Wenchow Tatal was to the French in making it known that they might buy land, it is rather strange that the native who acted as pilot to the French gunboat Forfait when she visited Wenchow a few weeks ago, to be beaten, and his house stripped of its belongings, simply because he—the pilot—had not first asked H. E. if he should bring the boat in! Now it is understood that no gunboat is to be piloted into the open port of Wenchow by natives without the Tatal first giving permission. Comment is needless.

The China Gazette bears that Capt. Newell, of the U. S. cruiser Delaware, is still on the Kucheng Commission in obedience to orders received direct from the State Department in Washington.

News comes from Chongtu that the amount of indemnity to be paid the Roman Catholic Missions for damage done by the rioters in Szechuen province is to be about 75,000,000. Furthermore that the reconstruction of the Roman Catholic Church at Yungchiao has already commenced. To the delay of the British and American Ministers in sending a Commission to Szechuen is attributable the rumor amongst the natives of Szechuen that no Commission is to be sent after all, and that the Chungking Tatal will probably be the person to settle the British and American claims.

In commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Sedan the members of the Club Concordia, Shanghai, assembled in the Club on the 1st inst. Mr. Ph. Arnold, the President of the Club, delivered a very effective speech, concluding by asking those present to drink to the safety of the Emperor William and the Emperor Wilhelm II. The toast was duly honoured, the company dispersing at about one o'clock.

The N. C. Daily News bears that the Imperial Government intend to make Wuchang or Hanyang, in Hubei, the starting point for the railway to Canton and that Chongking will be the starting point for Peking. A number of officials have already been sent by the high provincial authorities of Hubei and Kiangsu to survey and report on the most feasible route. The Emperor has given these Viceroy's one month to report on the matter.

The Japanese are encamped at Wei-hai-wei, and their fighting strength at that place is now reported to be 8,000 men.

H. M. S. Flindera arrived at Ichang on the 27th ultimo. The Est is reported to be en route for that port. Dr. Hare, the Customs physician, has also turned up at Ichang.

A few days ago some Chinese detectives of the Shanghai Force "spotted" a suspicious bundle in a tea-shop. They "laid low" for the happy owner, and captured twelve pirates, a lot of their booty and a number of revolvers and daggers. The investigation of the case is proceeding in the usual way.

The Pingang Gazette is of opinion that all that is necessary for Mr. Pilteneck and Dr. Brown to do, in order to make their resolution thoroughly acceptable, is to add the proviso that the percentage sum paid shall not exceed the total cost of the mission for the year. It is noted that in December last the Governor suggested to the Secretary of State a settlement of the Contribution question "on the basis perhaps of a certain fixed proportion—say 20 per cent—of the colonial revenue being taken as its contribution for military and naval defence." That journal repeats the Strait Times contention that Mr. Pilteneck deserves every credit for originality in proposing that the Contribution should be based upon actual past revenue, less reimbursements and interest, and points out that the past revenue basis is not only a sounder financial scheme but would also dispense with annual readjustments of the balance sheet.

CHINESE MAILS AND THE POST OFFICE REVENUE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

SIR,—In your last issue "Observer" in a letter calls attention to the Chinese post offices which he states "do" the Post Office out of a good deal of revenue. In the introductory paragraph of the letter "Observer" suggests that one of the reasons why our countrymen make very little use of the Government Post Office is attributable to its general unreliability and the frequent suspicious losses of letters and packets in transit. There is another and much stronger reason, however. With very few exceptions, the Chinese living in Hongkong have their friends and relatives in the interior of Kwangtung province, and much of our business is done with firms at Canton. What facilities are provided for the transmission of Chinese letters by the Post Office? Is there a place where a branch office in a British Settlement or British or French or Portuguese territory, or in the interior of China proper? Absolutely none. If the Government would make arrangements with the alleged illicit Chinese post offices to carry the mails posted in Hongkong to the interior cities and towns, it might be possible to put a stop to this alleged loss, but until this is done it would cause great inconvenience to merchants and others, and would be an injustice, and would, in fact, leave a blot where there is a fairly satisfactory system.

I commend the suggestion of the formation of an agreement with the Chinese postal companies to the Postmaster General, and I'm sure he will find, if he goes into the matter, that though Chinese, the private post offices compare very favorably, both as to safety and reliability and charges, with his own department. We have seen to "long" and the postmasters take heed that their employees don't get away with either hundreds or thousands of dollars.

I remain, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

A CHINESE MERCHANT.

Hongkong, 6th September, 1895.

Our correspondent seems to have missed the point in Observer's letter. The latter evidently chiefly referred to the manner in which thousands of letters are illicitly carried out of the colony and smuggled into ports in Portuguese, British, German, and French territories where there are regular post offices. Until the Chinese Government adopts a rational postal system throughout the Empire and thereby obtains legitimate revenue which would be bound to greatly enhance the revenue of the Central Government, it would not be fair, neither would it be expedient for the British Government to prevent Chinese residents in this Colony transmitting letters to their clients and others resident in foreign ports and inland cities of the Central Empire by their own agencies. We say, however, and certainly should say, ought to protect our revenue in no last as the evasion here of payment for postage on letters which could and ought to be sent through the regular post is concerned. We constantly hear of the Chinese postal department prosecuting Chinese for smuggling bundles of Hongkong letters into the country, and it is beyond question, we believe, that vast quantities of correspondence find its way illicitly into Saigon, Macao and Shanghai, the "mail" packages being carried usually by Chinese either specially employed for the purpose, or else by some Chinese employed on board coasting and river steamers. These irregularities could and should be stopped and the bearers of the unstamped correspondence be prosecuted and fined. If instead of coquetting with Russia the financing of the war indemnity had been entrusted to such a skilful financier as Sir Robert Hart has proved himself to be, no doubt within the next two or three years the boon of a trustworthy postal system would have been inaugurated and in through working order throughout the Empire, and from the revenue derived from its postal service the Central Government could have paid the whole of the war indemnity this side of the year 1900, and with comparative ease. If we take it for granted—and it is a fair estimate—that 200,000,000 of the people of China would make constant use of a postal service for the carrying on of their business and that the net profit per capita per annum was only one dollar, it would probably be a good deal more than a dollar a head. It is not difficult to comprehend that for the short-sighted conservatism of the Central Government there never would be any necessity for China to negotiate foreign loans, either with her worst enemy Russia, or any other nation. The Chinese Government have only themselves to blame for their troubles and innumerable embarrassments, and until they "put not their trust in princes" but, on the contrary, give a free hand to tried and able advisers and financiers like Sir Robert Hart they will always be on the horns of a dilemma, and instead of keeping pace with the times to a reasonable extent will drift from bad to worse until at last their enemies, taking advantage of the chaos and corruption permeating every province and every grade of society, will set about partitioning the Empire and thereby possibly force on Great Britain action which she has long refrained from to the hope—alas! a vain hope—that it might be for ever obliterated. There is, of course, hope while there is life, and China is, we think, happily not past redemption. Will she awake to the extent of the situation and enlist the aid of her ablest friends, pay off all creditors, reorganize her army and her navy and introduce a system of collecting revenue which will benefit the people and Government alike? Surely the example of the foreign Customs Service should suffice to convince the Manchou rulers that a postal service could, at least be established in the Empire with manifold advantages. But after the little game that has been played with Russia and France recently would Sir Robert Hart undertake such a stupendous task? If he would not, who among China's friends could, with any hope of success, be asked to do it? Few indeed, if any.—Ed., H.K.T.

THE GAP ROCK LIGHTHOUSE.

MR. MATTHEWS' EXCELLENCE TABOURED.

The Appeal to Sir Robert Hart made in vain.

We are indebted to the courtesy of the Hon. C. P. Chater, Senior Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council, for the following copies of correspondence referring to Gap Rock Lighthouse, which will doubtless greatly interest the ratepayers and not a few journalistic readers:—

Colonial Secretary's Office.

Hongkong, 4th February, 1895.

Sir,—I am directed by the Governor to transmit for the consideration of yourself and the other Unofficial Members of the Legislative Council the accompanying copies of a report by Messrs. Coope, Soden and Matthews, on the subject of the Gap Rock Lighthouse, and to request you to be so good as to bring the matter before your colleagues at your early convenience.

The Governor has also expressed the opinion that there is no alternative but to adopt Mr. Matthews' recommendation as to the building of a new lighthouse, and the removal of the present building, though His Excellency much regrets the expenditure involved. His Excellency, therefore, hopes that you and your colleagues will see the desirability of supporting the Government in this matter in view of the possible loss of shipping and life if the buildings are allowed to remain in their present position.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. H. STEWART-LOCKHART,

The Honourable C. P. Chater, Senior Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council.

Hongkong, 20th February, 1895.

Sir,—With reference to your letter of the 4th inst., in which you ask me to bring the matter of the Gap Rock Lighthouse before my unofficial colleagues, I beg to inform you that we held a meeting on the 16th inst., at which it was decided to before expressing any opinion on it, to first be submitted to a committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in which the lighthouse, which are those chiefly affected, are fully represented, and that that body be requested to state its views on the matter.

It was further decided to bring before you a suggestion that Messrs. Coope, Soden & Matthews' report, together with this correspondence, be sent to the local press for publication, so that mariners and others in a position to pronounce an opinion might be afforded an opportunity of commenting on it.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

C. P. CHATER.

Hon. J. H. Stewart-Lockhart, Acting Colonial Secretary.

No. 1744. Colonial Secretary's Office.

Hongkong, 25th August, 1895.

Sir,—With reference to my letter No. 752 of the 4th February last on the subject of a report by Messrs. Coope, Soden and Matthews on the Gap Rock Lighthouse, and to your reply thereto of the 20th inst., I am directed to inform you that in accordance with the suggestion of the Unofficial Members of the Chamber of Commerce has been accepted in the matter, and that it recommended that Mr. Matthews' further opinion should be obtained, preferably that of an officer of the Light House, and accordingly been communicated with an suggested by the Chamber, but has expressed regret that he has no officer available for the service.

In the above circumstances His Excellency the Governor would be glad to learn whether the Unofficial Members have any further suggestion to make, or whether they are of opinion that Mr. Matthews' recommendations should be adopted.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. H. STEWART-LOCKHART,

The Honourable C. P. Chater, Senior Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council.

Hongkong, 3rd Sept., 1895.

Sir,—With reference to your letter of the 26th inst., regarding the Gap Rock Lighthouse, I have to inform you that at a meeting of the unofficial members of the Chamber of Commerce, held on the 16th inst., the following resolution was passed:—

"We would advise that all precautions possible be taken to strengthen the existing buildings and light, and that extra sets of lantern glasses be provided, and always kept in stock."

We would also recommend, to ensure the safety of the keepers, that a refuge be constructed for them, to which they might retire, in time of danger.

As in your last despatch to the Military Commission, you state that H. E. the Governor does not wish to purchase the letter of the unofficial members of the Chamber of Commerce, we presume that there would be no objection to our publishing this correspondence also.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

C. P. CHATER.

Hon. J. H. Stewart-Lockhart, Colonial Secretary.

No. 1813. Colonial Secretary's Office.

Sir,—I am directed by the Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 3rd inst. on the subject of the Gap Rock Lighthouse, and to state that the recommendations of the Unofficial Members of the Chamber of Commerce will be considered.

His Excellency the Governor has no objection to the publication of the correspondence on this subject.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

THE KUCHENG MASSACRE.

FOOCHOW, AUGUST, 31ST.

In the absence of information to the contrary we reported last Saturday that matters were still at a deadlock in Kucheng. News, however, was received that evening that on the strength of telegrams from Peking all differences had been arranged and that the regular sittings of the Commission had commenced on Wednesday, the 21st instant. Couriers have been arriving almost daily since with instalments of news. The Commission is working harmoniously, and the progress, although slow, is satisfactory. Up to Sunday the 25th, many as a hundred arrests had been made, and the Viceroy was telegraphed to to arrange for more prison accommodation and more jailers. The Rev. J. Star had returned. It was thought by those on the spot that his investigation was likely to be a very lengthy business.

We have but few details of the examinations. The great majority of those arrested are coarse looking, common fellows, but there is a singular exception to this in a man whose Chinese nickname is "Long Finger-nails." This man is said to be the arch-villain who planned the attack on Whassang, and urged on the others to carry it out. He is a fortune-teller by profession. With a miserable physique, however, he stood out in appearance from the crowd as one of a superior class. Another important arrest is that of a man who is believed introduced this secret society into Fokien, and has been working hard, and it would seem successfully, in getting the people of the province to join the society. This man, it is stated, was locally joined under compulsion, and never had any real liking for it. If any of them happen to see him, they have no chance of saving their own heads, it is thought that they will not hesitate to give evidence against those who pressed them to become members.

It has transpired that a gang of upwards of 200 men started from Kucheng in the early morning of the 1st August for Whassang, but that nearly all of them dropped out on the journey and returned to their homes. It is reported that 210 actually arrived to take part in that cruel massacre.—Ed.

SERIOUS ANTI-CHRISTIAN RISING AT HOK CHONG.

FOOCHOW, AUGUST, 31ST.

A rumour current on Thursday was confirmed by later news received yesterday about a rising against the native Christians in the Hok Chong district. The leading native, assisted by the yamen underlings, had commenced an attack on the Christian Chinese and up to the 25th inst. eight houses had been destroyed after plundering of everything that could be carried away. The cattle, also, of the Christians had been taken away by the plunderers. The women and children escaped, but some of the men had been wounded, and the last reports say that one of the wounded was not expected to live. The Magistrate was appealed to five times, refused to do anything. He then issued a proclamation which was really nothing else than a justification of this attack on the Christians. He had issued one on the 21st inst. by the Kucheng Massacre. In this he made some classical allusions which pointed to Christianity as a false and dangerous system, and covert hints were given as to how its followers should be dealt with. This was the interpretation the people put on his allusions and they openly declared their intention of obeying what they considered the private hints of the mandarin. The following day the work of destruction commenced, chiefly carried on by leaders belonging to the Magistrate's yamen. The work of destruction continued until Monday, the 26th, and when the messenger left with the news, there were meetings of the gentry and headmen of the yamen going on for the purpose of forming plans for the destruction of the Mission House and church, and for the extermination of all the Christians.

The ostensible pretext for the attack was that the Christians refused to subscribe towards the support of the idolatrous processions and ceremonies. The Magistrate in the midst of the excitement issued another proclamation denouncing the Christians for not contributing towards these processions, which of course encouraged the people to make the attack. Pending further news it is very much feared that there will be a general destruction of life and property. The District Magistrate could not be trusted to issue a proper proclamation, the Viceroy ought to have had it drawn up in his own office; they are both responsible. The issuing of that double-meaning proclamation by the Magistrate on the 21st instant, was a deliberate piece of mischief. His intention is perfectly plain, and our Consul ought to see that he is made to answer for it. We understand that a copy of this proclamation was sent in to the Viceroy by H. B. M. Consul, but it is possible that he did not receive it in time to prevent the trouble. There are five thousand Christians belonging to the Church of England alone, and probably three thousand or more in connection with the American Methodist Mission.—Ed.

THE GAP ROCK LIGHTHOUSE.

MR. MATTHEWS' EXCELLENCE TABOURED.

The Appeal to Sir Robert Hart made in vain.

We are indebted to the courtesy of the Hon. C. P. Chater, Senior Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council, for the following copies of correspondence referring to Gap Rock Lighthouse, which will doubtless greatly interest the ratepayers and not a few journalistic readers:—

Colonial Secretary's Office.

Hongkong, 4th February, 1895.

Sir,—I am directed by the Governor to transmit for the consideration of yourself and the other Unofficial Members of the Legislative Council the accompanying copies of a report by Messrs. Coope, Soden and Matthews, on the subject of the Gap Rock Lighthouse, and to request you to be so good as to bring the matter before your colleagues at your early convenience.

The Governor has also expressed the opinion that there is no alternative but to adopt Mr. Matthews' recommendation as to the building of a new lighthouse, and the removal of the present building, though His Excellency much regrets the expenditure involved. His Excellency, therefore, hopes that you and your colleagues will see the desirability of supporting the Government in this matter in view of the possible loss of shipping and life if the buildings are allowed to remain in their present position.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. H. STEWART-LOCKHART,

The Honourable C. P. Chater, Senior Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council.

Hongkong, 20th February, 1895.

Sir,—With reference to your letter of the 4th inst., in which you ask me to bring the matter of the Gap Rock Lighthouse before my unofficial colleagues, I beg to inform you that we held a meeting on the 16th inst., at which it was decided to before expressing any opinion on it, to first be submitted to a committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in which the lighthouse, which are those chiefly affected, are fully represented, and that that body be requested to state its views on the matter.

It was further decided to bring before you a suggestion that Messrs. Coope, Soden & Matthews' report, together with this correspondence, be sent to the local press for publication, so that mariners and others in a position to pronounce an opinion might be afforded an opportunity of commenting on it.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

C. P. CHATER.

Hon. J. H. Stewart-Lockhart, Acting Colonial Secretary.

Sir,—With reference to my letter No. 752 of the 4th February last on the subject of a report by Messrs. Coope, Soden and Matthews on the Gap Rock Lighthouse, and to your reply thereto of the 20th inst., I am directed to inform you that in accordance with the suggestion of the Unofficial Members of the Chamber of Commerce has been accepted in the matter, and that it recommended that Mr. Matthews' further opinion should be obtained, preferably that of an officer of the Light House, and accordingly been communicated with an suggested by the Chamber, but has expressed regret that he has no officer available for the service.

In the above circumstances His Excellency the Governor would be glad to learn whether the Unofficial Members have any further suggestion to make, or whether they are of opinion that Mr. Matthews' recommendations should be adopted.

Your most obedient servant,

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.

The following telegrams from our San Francisco exchanges were "crowded out" of last Wednesday night's issue:—

COWES, August 5th.

In the race for the Queen's cup in the regatta of the Royal Yacht Squadron to-day, over a distance of about fifty miles, the Britannia had a sailer.

Emperor William boarded his yacht, the Albatross, formerly the Scotch cutter Thistle, which was defeated by the Volunteer in 1877, in the race for the America's cup. His majesty was dressed in a yachting costume, and intended to start with his yacht in the race for the Queen's cup, but the gale which was blowing it was realized that the Albatross was no match for the Britannia, and the former did not start.

During the morning Emperor William boarded the German war-ship Worth, it being the anniversary of the battle of Worth, and made a speech. He pointed out how the battle of Worth was the beginning of a campaign in which the nation of Germany had already found expression. The Prince of Prussia called for three cheers for his majesty, and they were heartily given.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 7th.

Miss Elizabeth M. Flieger, the daughter of General Flieger, chief of ordnance of the United States army, who accidentally killed Ernest Green, a colored boy of this city, last week, technically surrendered herself to the warden of the district jail this afternoon to await the action of the Grand Jury.

At the same time she appeared before Judge Cole of the Criminal Court and was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000. She was accompanied in court for her father and mother, her attorney, Ross Perry, Juno Cassel and General Robert McPeck.

Miss Flieger has been confined to her room ever since the shooting as a result of nervous prostration, but to-day she appeared bright and happy and talked cheerfully with her friends. She was dressed in black and wore a heavy veil.

When the court had been formally opened Assistant District Attorney Taggart stated that in view of the character of the finding of the Coroner's jury it would be necessary to submit the case to the Grand Jury. Miss Flieger's attorney remarked that the verdict of the Coroner's jury was technically a finding for manslaughter he added that his client was in court, ready to furnish bail in any sum that might be demanded. Judge Cole stated that he had read the evidence taken at the inquest; that in his opinion the case was a bailable one and that $10,000 would be sufficient.

This was satisfactory to the Assistant District Attorney, whereupon Messrs. Cassel and McPeck qualified as sureties.

General and Mrs. Flieger called upon Mr. Green, the father of the deceased lad; but Green preferred to say nothing about the case, and the call was limited to expressions of regret on the part of General and Mrs. Flieger at the unfortunate occurrence.

There have been so many conflicting reports as to the intentions of Mr. Green that the latter has written a letter to a local paper, in which he has stated that he has not determined what course he shall pursue.

One feature of the case that is attracting considerable attention is that the law of the District of Columbia gives as the minimum sentence for manslaughter a term of imprisonment of two years in the penitentiary.

LONDON, August 7th.

The Government has instructed the British naval commander in Chinese waters to enforce, if necessary, Great Britain's demand looking to the protection of British subjects throughout China, and the prompt punishment of all who were implicated in the recent massacre.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 7th.

The vacation of the Chinese Minister, Yang Yu, which he was spending at Niagara Falls, and along the St. Louis River, has been brought to a sudden close by the reported massacres of missionaries and the destruction of American and English missionary property in China. The Minister felt that in view of these troubles and the complications which may arise between the two countries as a result thereof he would better return to Washington, and he did so this morning. He expressed his deep regret at the reports, and hopes that later and fuller information will modify the severity to some extent. He is satisfied that the Peking Government will do everything in its power not only to prevent further outrages, but to punish the guilty perpetrators of those which have already occurred. It is believed at the Legation that the secret societies of Southern China are the moving spirits in the recent massacres. There is some difficulty in dealing with them from Peking. It is said in justification of the Chinese people, however, that mob spirit is likely to occur in any country, and that China is not alone in having her share of these difficulties.

MELBOURNE (Victoria), August 5th.

The City of Melbourne Bank has closed its doors.

LONDON, August 10th.

Mr. Henry Irving will sail for America on Saturday, August 31st, by the steamer New York. The steamer Southwark of the American line has been specially chartered for the property and various paraphernalia, amounting in all to about 7,000 tons. The company will open in Mexico on September 6th.

The first voyage of the United States cruiser Columbia across the Atlantic is still causing a great deal of discussion in naval circles. The leading service organs, the Army and Navy Gazette and the United Service Gazette, comment upon her performance as one of more than "average" interest. The latter publication remarks: "The Columbia's performance proves her to be the fastest fighting ship in the world. Eleven minutes under way in crossing the Atlantic thought to be very remarkable time for a warship. There is an uneasy feeling here until the Powerful and Terrible are finished. We have no cruiser which could maintain a like speed for such a continuous run."
